Service is designed to provide information and education with regard to the subject matter covered. It is offered with the understanding that the authors and publishers are not engaged in rendering legal, accounting, or other professional services. If legal advice or other expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional person should be sought.

Prior to buying or selling foreign exchange currency pair or options, an investor should receive a copy of “Foreign Exchange Risk Trading” and “Characteristics And Risks Standardized Options”. Copies of these types of document are available from your broker.

It is your responsibility to obtain from your foreign exchange, options, stock, commodities or futures broker any risk disclosure documentations required for trading. No statement in this Service should be construed as a recommendation to buy or sell foreign exchange, option(s), future(s), stock(s), a commodity or security.

The material is only provided for paper trading and for educational purposes. The recommendations are for paper trading to develop your skills for real time trading. If you can make profits in paper trading, and wish to trade real time with real money and need assistance, then seek help from a qualified financial advisor. This Service is not financial advice.

The material does not recommend or otherwise imply that any trading position be taken, which is, and only can be initiating trader's and/or investor's decision and responsibility. F.A.M.C. Ltd is not a registered financial advisor - and cannot give such advice. The charts, forecasts and information are for educational purposes to demonstrate the predictive success of this type of market analysis. As such, it is primarily a teaching tool. Any signals given to buy or sell are for demonstration of the method and are not trading instructions or any sort.
